COOKIE POLICY

Last changes: 25.05.2022

On our website https://www.mermeren.com/, we strive to respect your privacy and ensure protection of all your personal data that we collect from you as a visitor who uses our website, and during the process of collecting it, Mermeren Kombinat AD Prilep acts as a controller of the personal data in accordance with the Law on Personal Data Protection. Our website uses only essential cookies that allow us to provide you with a better user experience while using our website.

This Cookie Policy describes the types of cookies we use on the website and the purposes of their processing.

If you have any queries, please contact us at info@mermeren.com. For further information on protecting the privacy rights in our company, please read our Privacy Policy. Privacy Policy. If you have queries about the Privacy Policy, you can contact the person authorized for personal data protection: Darko Nikoloski, contact email: info@mermeren.com.

Carefully read this Cookie Policy for all the details about the use of cookies and the information we collect about you and from you.

COOKIE DEFINITION

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your computer or mobile phone by the websites you visit.
Cookies are often used by website owners to facilitate the operation of the website or to remember your activities and preferences, to provide personalized / customized content on the website, and to display its navigation history. These text files can be read by the websites you visit and help identify you when you revisit the website.

Cookies placed by the website owner or service provider (in this case Mermeren Kombinat AD Prilep) are called "first-party cookies". Cookies placed by other parties, and not by the website owner, are called "third-party cookies".

Persistent cookies: These cookies remain on the user's device for a period of time specified in the cookie itself. They are activated every time the user visits the website that has placed that cookie.

Session cookies: These cookies allow web site operators to link user actions during a session in the browser from which the user accesses. The session starts when the user starts the browser window and ends when he/she closes the browser window. Session cookies are created temporarily. Once you close the browser, all session cookies are deleted.

WHAT COOKIES DO WE USE AND WHY?

Generally, the website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of the website. This primarily helps us to provide you with a good experience when you search the website and allows us to improve it. Cookies are also used to facilitate the operation of the website or to remember your activities and preferences, to provide personalized / customized content on the website and to display its navigation history. Only the essential cookies are used on our website.

Essential cookies allow you to navigate through the web page and use the basic features of the page. Without these cookies, we cannot provide the requested services.

We use these cookies to:
- Identify you as being logged in to the website and to authenticate you
- Make sure you connect to the right service on the website when we make any changes to the way it works
- For security purposes

If you prevent these cookies, we can't guarantee how the website will perform during your visit.

WHEN DO WE ASK FOR YOUR CONSENT

Essential cookies do not require your consent. We inform you about it when you visit our website. All other cookies require consent.

We request your consent before placing cookies on your device. You can agree by clicking on the appropriate banner button displayed at the beginning of your visit. If you do not wish to give consent or wish to withdraw your consent to any cookies at any time, you will need to delete and block the cookies via the browser settings. See below in this Policy for more information on how to do this. Please note that disabling these cookies will affect the functionality of the website and may prevent you from being able to access certain features of the website.

HOW TO DELETE OR BLOCK COOKIES

Most web browsers provide some control over most cookies via the browser settings. However, if you use the browser settings to block all cookies (including the essential cookies), you may not be able to access the entire webpage or parts of it.

Changing your cookie settings. Browser settings for changing the cookie settings are usually found in the 'options' or 'preferences' menu of your browser. In order to understand these settings, the following links may be helpful. Otherwise, you should use the 'Help' option in your browser for more details.
